Kumano Kodo Pilgrimage Guided Hiking Tour for Individuals

Nakahechi Route

Kii Adventures

Season & Tour Operations

Planning your journey requires understanding the seasonal climate of the Kii Peninsula. Below are our standard operating guidelines and seasonal recommendations for consumer tours.

Season / Period Status & Rate Policy

Spring Peak (Mar 20 - May 25) Best Season.

Ideal weather, fresh greenery. Standard Rates.

Rainy Season (June All Month) Closed.

No tours operated due to heavy precipitation risks.

Mid-Summer Risk (Mid-Jul - Early Sep) High Alert / Warning.

Risk of extreme heat and heatstroke. Exercise extreme caution if hiking.

Autumn Peak (Oct 1 - Nov 30) Best Season.

Perfect trekking climate and stunning autumn foliage.

Off-Peak Windows (Other periods except June)

10% Off Guide Fees.

Value option for seasoned trekkers.

Private Guide Tariff (Up to 10 people) ☆For solo guest, 5,000JPY discount will be applied to the below price.

1. Takijiri-Oji > Chikatsuyu (Distance: 14.5km Time:7 hours) Price: 30,000JPY

The sacred threshold where the spiritual realm begins. This marks the starting point of the core mountain trek. For day one.

2. Chikatsuyu > Hossinmon-Oji (Distance: 17km Time:7 hours) Price: 30,000JPY

A peaceful riverside village nestled in the mountains. An excellent and popular overnight stopover for day two.

3. Hosshinmon-Oji > Hongu Taisha (Distance: 7.7km Time:3.5 hours) Price: 15,000JPY

Offers a scenic, easy-to-walk half-day trail to the grand shrine. The grand destination of the Nakahechi route. Also visit Oyunohara, the massive original site of the shrine located on a sandbank nearby, dominated by the largest O-Torii gate in the world.